Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your letter of June 2, 2017, regarding your tax-exempt status. Our records indicate that you are affiliated with a group exemption. As a subordinate of a group exemption, you should submit information about changes to your purposes, activities, method of operation, name or address to your central organization rather than reporting such changes directly to the IRS.

The Internal Revenue Service does not issue determination letters to subordinate organizations. Therefore you should contact your central organization directly for written verification of your tax exempt status.

The central organization that holds a group exemption (rather than the IRS) determines which organizations are included as subordinates under its group exemption ruling. Therefore, you can verify that an organization is a subordinate under a group exemption ruling by consulting the official subordinate listing approved by the central organization or by contacting the central organization directly. You may use either method to verify that an organization is a subordinate under a group exemption ruling.

If you have any questions, please call the phone number in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Martin
